

Limpopo – the Land of Mysteries - steeped in the age-old African tradition of sacred arts and crafts - has seen a lot of new talents in art and craft forms. Each object carries a deeper meaning. They carry historical tales, moral values and educational messages, strengthening oral tradition with permanent figurative objects. Today, this craftart forms undergo rapid transformation both in style and contents. This exhibition hopes to give the contemporary Venda and Tsonga artists and crafters their own voice and place in the contemporary landscape of South Africa.
